Born in Carrara, the marble town, 4th July 1949 I studied medicine in Pisa where I graduated September 1973. I moved to Modena working with handicapped children during the process of the closure of mental hospital. I specialized in child psychiatry and psychiatry. In 1979 I finished my training with Selvini, Boscolo and Cecchin and during 1979 I went to MRI. From there each year I spent a period of Carlos Sluzki, considering him my main mentor. I directed mental health centers for children in Modena and Reggio Emilia. I was contract professor for 20 years to the Modena and Reggio Emilia university. During 1981 with Fabio Bassoli I founded ISCRA a well established institute of psychotherapy mediation and counselling. I signed about 10 books and many papers. Editor of Maieutica, past president of SIRTIS, secretary of European Forum of Mediation, researcher for SIPPR, founder of AIMS. I work as psychotherapist in private practice in Modena.
